Question 1

Under Section 7 [Profile of the Consultant] of the Tender Documents, the qualification requirements for the requested staff were listed. In case the Consultant's proposed staff does not match one of the required credentials fully i.e., 11 years of experience instead of 12 years; would it be a reason to fail the offer completely or would it be only considered for deduction of some points during the assessment of the Consultant's offer.

Answer

In the exemplified case, it would not be a reason to disqualify the company.

The minimum technical score for the criteria (b) and (c) is 70% of the maximum technical score for these criteria. Technical proposals that do not meet one of these minimum technical scores will be automatically rejected.

Points for the Key Staff are given in accordance with the evaluated experience. The Total score of the company depends on the overall score accumulated under all the set criteria, including the evaluation of key staff. The minimum passing score, as stated in the RFP is 70 points.
